

Mr. Bradt and Ms. Clark’s GV Famous Christmas week obstacle course is a favorite of the Elementary!

January 2019 Board of Education Meeting

Brian Edmister, Elementary Principal

A big "Thank you!" to Ms. Horne for organizing and inviting staff to sing carols to our High School students at lunch. It was fun and many of the kids sang along.

The GV Christmas store was run by Ms. Bradt, Ms. Turybura, and the PTO! Our students were able to shop there for gifts for family for the cost of a simple act of gratitude. GV is so lucky to have such a wonderful opportunity for our kids.

Santa made his yearly stop in the Early Learning areas of the school. Kids were very excited!

As always, Mr. Musingo did an amazing job preparing our K-4 for their concerts! The house was completely full on this night!

Mr. Gyr and the 2nd graders used some serious hands-on learning to explore the human digestive system. They created working models from the mouth to the toilet. It was an experience they will never forget!

Mrs. Douglas had her students act out the trial in To Kill a Mockingbird.

Our winter sports teams are off to a great start!

Mr. VanTassel's Earth Science class measured the relative humidity in different parts of their classroom, the hallway and outside.

It is great to see the Pep Band supporting our athletes!

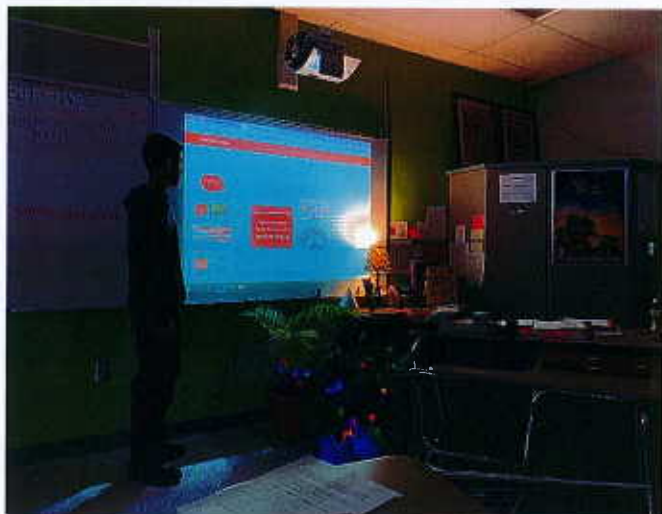

The National Honor Society served dinners at the Senior Citizens' banquet and assisted with the clean up after the meal.

The holiday concerts were well attended and were a great way to celebrate the season!

Mrs. Faller's class argued each side in the trial of Mary Maloney. Officer Rounds served as the judge and made his decision based on the best supported argument.

Ninth grade Global Studies students presented their projects on a belief system. Students who took both Global 9 and Spanish were able to complete just one project for both classes. In Spanish class, they had to present their project completely in Spanish.

Kathy Welch, a labor relations specialist came in to speak in Erika Hyer-Scott's P.I.G. class about the role of labor unions.
