Art Projects from Ms. Buchholz’s 6th graders. Kids self-evaluated themselves and created murals that showed who they are.
It is so wonderful to have the LGI open for business again! Students and teachers were creating, coding, and exploring together!